The North Pole Government has asked you to write a report on a labour dispute between Santa Claus and his elves. Describe the elves’ current working conditions, mention what the most significant problems are and make recommendations as to how these problems could be resolved.

Write your report in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.